DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

The applicant is reminded that claims 10-13, 15 and 17 are drawn to non-elected species and are therefore not under consideration by the examiner.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 8, 9, 14, 16, 21 and 22 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Jullien (FR Pat. No. 2,564,735).

3. Regarding claims 8, 9, 14, 16, applicant is referred to paragraph 5 of the Office action dated October 4th, 2005 as well as the "Response to Arguments" section below.

4. Regarding claims 21 and 22, Jullien teaches a guide body having a side wall with a surface (see proximate lead line 3 and 15), where a guide path lies in a plane parallel to the surface.

5. Claims 23-26 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Berne (US Pat. No. 2,921,791).

6. Berne discloses an exercise device with a base (see proximate lead line 1), a guide body comprising a first flat side wall and a second side wall spaced from and parallel to each other (see proximate lead line 8), a stick member (see proximate lead line 2), a pivot (see proximate lead line 11), and two cylinders providing resistance (see proximate lead line 13).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

7. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

8. Claims 18-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Jullien in view of von Othegraven (US Pat. No. 4,517,966).

9. Applicant is referred to paragraphs 8-10 of the Office action date October 4th, 2005.

10. Claim 16 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Jullien in view of Weiss.

11. Jullien, as discussed above and in the Office action dated October 4th, 2005, does not disclose a means for constraining the rotational movement of the stick member by a pin or rod member.

12. Weiss discloses an exercise apparatus comprising a pivotal stick member wherein the pivot is fixed by and therefore constrained by a pivot rod (see proximate lead line 138).
13. Based on the teachings of Weiss it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to have utilized such a means of fixing or constraint in the Jullien device. This modification would not alter the function of the device or the way in which it is used, but would merely constrain movement to only one guide path. Furthermore, it is known in the art to provide a pin or rod member in order to achieve this constrained movement. Even though a single or unique guide path has not been recited in the claim, or specifically the employment of a pin or rod member, Jullien in view of Weiss demonstrates the ubiquity of such a feature.

Response to Arguments

14. Applicant's amendments filed October 7th, 2005 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. The prior art cited in the Office action dated October 4th, 2005 meets the limitations presented by the applicant in the amended claims and therefore the rejection stands.
15. Jullien teaches a guide body having a surface (see proximate lead line 15) that defines a guide path and that constrains the rotational movement of the stick member along the guide path. This surface confines the pivot and therefore constrains the movement of the stick member about a single longitudinal axis. The stick is not free to move about any given axis. Furthermore, a defined guide path lies in a plane parallel to a side wall of the guide body. The applicant has not limited the claim to a single or unique guide path that is parallel to a side wall of the guide body and therefore has not overcome the teaching of the prior art.

Conclusion

16. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
